

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

RBI Technical and Vocational Education and Training Bursary

Bursary closing date extended to: 19 May 2023

Are you interested in furthering your studies? Do you believe that you can achieve a successful future but don't have the means to study?

If you answered yes to the above questions, we are calling on you to apply for the RBI Technical and Vocational Education and Training Bursary and start paving a path towards your successful future.

The bursary aims to address South Africa's skills shortage with a particular focus on mining and engineering.

It aims to enable academically deserving individuals who do not have the financial means to study, to do so through qualifications offered by TVET Colleges: Brits, Mankwe and Rustenburg campuses. These are:

- Boiler making
- Fitting and turning
- Electrical engineering
- Civil engineering
- Rock engineering
- Mining manager
- Blasting ticket
- Mining overseer
- Mechanical engineering
- Quality management

Bursaries are awarded towards:

Tuition, study material and living expenses

Criteria for acceptance

To be eligible for the RBI Technical and Vocational Education and Training Bursary, you must:

- Be a South African who is a bona fide Royal Bafokeng citizen
- Have proven financial need as determined by your household income
- Not be currently receiving funding from NSFAS, Government or other private sponsors.

The application process

- The student must apply for admission at a TVET college
- Once accepted, the student must submit the proof of acceptance and the following documentation to RBI by e-mail to: sgss@bafokeng.com no later than 19 May 2023

- CV
- Your certified ID
- Letter from Kgosana
- Latest academic results (If already enrolled at a TVET college)
- Proof of family income / an affidavit

- RBI will then screen bursary applications against its mandated sole discretion.

All applicants will receive feedback on the status of their application for the RBI Technical and Vocational Education and Training Bursary before 31 May 2023.

Should you not hear from us on or before 31 May 2023, consider your application unsuccessful.
