

Do you dream of becoming a chef?

Royal Bafokeng Institute is recruiting interested candidates to embrace their flair for cooking through its three-year programme for Occupational Certificate: Chef

This is a fully funded and paid programme open to unemployed youth who want to become internationally recognised in the hospitality and catering industry.

It brings together theoretical, practical and workplace elements of food preparation and service. A Chef plans, organises and executes the preparation, cooking and finishing (presentation, holding and storing) of food in Hotels, Restaurants and Catering (HORECA) establishments.

It is your ticket to conquering the hospitality industry.

Criteria for selection

To be eligible for selection into this programme, you must:

- Be a South African
- Aged between 18 and 35 years old
- Unemployed
- Not be participating in any other programme funded by government or any other public institution
- Disabled candidates are encouraged to apply. Proof of disability required.

Minimum Requirements

Grades 10 to 12 with Maths Literacy or highest qualification or Affidavit if matric is not obtained.

Relevant experience will compliment qualifications.

The application process:

Interested candidates must apply before 31 May 2023 by dropping your documents at the RBI Offices in Phokeng for attention Julia Tsitsi or via e-mail to: Dorothy.langa@bafokeng.com or Patrick.masilo@bafokeng.com

To apply, submit your:

-  Clear certified qualification copies not older than 3 months
-  Clear certified ID copy not older than 3 months

Shortlisted candidates will be invited to attend interviews as part of the selection process

For more information contact: 014 566 1400
<https://www.bafokenginstitute.org.za/>